

Senior Tartars Set for Last Fling Against Jordan

Jim Bottomley

Ronnie Higgins

John Kulp

Boyd Crawford

Wendell Vaughn

Frank Costa

Chuck Vorhis

Pete Douroux

Win, lose or draw tomorrow night's grid contest at Jordan will hold a special niche in the grid memories of 21 members of the Torrance Varsity football team. It will be their last game in high school moleskins. Most of the senior letter-men plan football activity in college after they accept the proverbial sheepskin at the local institution at the end of the semester.

Here is the roster of those who will graduate before another football season rolls around: Jim Smith, end; Bob Voes, halfback; Chuck Vorhis, fullback; Ronnie Higgins, halfback; John Kulp, right end; Boyd Crawford, quarterback; Gerald Thompson, tackle; Don Tompkins, end; Bob Lancaster, guard; Wendell Vaughn, end; Frank Sclarotta, center; Harold Senoles, end; Ronald

Although Coach Eddie Cole bemoans his fate in losing more than half of his 40-man squad, the men he will probably miss the most are Crawford, Douroux, Vaughn, Vorhis, Kulp, Higgins, Costa and Bottomley. These eight were in many games from the opening gun until the whistle sounded for the long march to the shower room. Stellar hands like Vaughn, Crawford and Douroux don't come along very often, according to Bay League coaches. These men, together with their teammates of past grid-iron battles will be sorely missed next year when the going gets rough

Rabbit Season's Wide Open Now

Starting Friday it's open season for brush and cottontail rabbits in California, and will continue until December 31. Bag limit is eight per day, and eight in possession.

Gardena Five In Practice Victory

Basketballers of Gardena High showed plenty of promise with a 37-31 nod over Leuzinger High in a practice game at Gardena last week as Alvarez and Hale combined for 21 points between them.

How truly is a kind heart a fountain of gladness, making everything in its vicinity to freshen into smiles!

Olymps Overtake Vikings to Tie Bay League Race

Leuzinger High, which in pre-season football speculation was tabbed as prime prospect for the position of Bay League whipping boy, rang up the greatest win in the school's grid history Thursday when they came from behind to outscore a confident band of Santa Monica Vikings, 26 to 19.

The victory threw the two teams into a tie for first place in the loop standings and ended Santa Monica's 22-game domination of the league.

Outplayed most of the first half, Coach Dave Rebd's Olympians stormed back to overcome a six point deficit and go on to roll up a seven point victory margin.

With the score tied 19-19 early in the last period the Leuzingers racked up the winning tally when Johnny Lewis boomed over from the 3 yard line.

Quarterback Landon Exley led the Samohi attack with passes throughout the evening.

In other Bay League games, Redondo outscored Torrance, Inglewood tripped El Segundo and Jordan beat Beverly Hills.

Score by quarters: Leuzinger 7 6 6 7—26 Santa Monica 6 13 0 0—19 Leuzinger scoring: Touchdowns—Lewis, 2; Angel, 2. Points after touchdown—Lewis, Thomas.

Santa Monica scoring: Touchdowns—Lugo, O'Brien, Savage. Point after touchdown—Lugo.

Tarbabes in Underdog Role

The Torrance High School Tarbabe gridgers will be two touchdown underdogs for their game with the league-leading Jordan Bees this afternoon, 2:30, at the local field.

NASTY OLE' HAWKS

Redondo Proves Champs Nemesis

The Redondo Seahawks, capable of championship-like performance, are out of the running as far as the Bay League crown is concerned, but they may go down in the record books as this year's No. 1 "spoiler" outfit.

The Hawks handed Leuzinger its only defeat early in the season to spoil the Olympian record. However, the Olympians are now tied for first place after upsetting Santa Monica Thursday night.

Leuzinger is a cinch to win its last game against El Segundo. Santa Monica, to hold its position at the top must beat—you guessed it, Redondo.

El Camino Gridgers Fly To Sac for Saturday Game

El Camino's improving Warrior grid machine will fly to their next game, to be played against Grant Tech Saturday, November 19, on the Sacramento turf.

Saturday's encounter will see El Camino venturing approximately 400 miles for the non-conference inter-sectional clash.

The local team will close its season and dedicate the new El Camino Stadium with a game against East Los Angeles Junior College on Thanksgiving. Game time is 12 noon.

The Warriors have fared well this season after a shaky start. Riverside put El Camino back on the right track by playing dead to the tune of 33-14. Bakersfield lost a heartbreaker 19-18 to El Camino in Metropolitan Conference play, but San Diego's potent Knights eked out a 13-7 conference thriller to end the win streak.

The Warriors then went to work again and clipped California Poly 26-0, Modesto 35-14, and Pierce 48-7.

Coach Amby Schindler will carry 35 men to Sacramento and will start the same eleven that has opened the previous games.

Paul Held will get the nod at quarterback flanked by Jim Sears and "Socoo" Torres at the halves and Ron Skrifloff at full.

On the line John Morrow will have Jack Chronister at center, Hal Rhine and Larry Oien at the guards, and Merlyn Wiseman and Bob Reading at the tackles. Doug Essick will have Herschel Dean, Ray Carver, Don Jurk, and Eugene Peterson at the end posts.

Backfield men Al Huey, Ron Dixon, Milo Goettsch, Cecil Schmeckle, Jim Charles, and Don Young will see action while linemen Jack Renke, Dick Donges, Dick Corrite, Gene Stirling, Dick Oeffinger, and Buddy Licht all will work in reserve.

Here's How to Get to Jordan's Field Tomorrow Night

Take Carson street east to Alameda street. Turn north on Alameda to Del Amo. East on Del Amo to Long Beach boulevard. North on Long Beach boulevard 11 blocks to Market street. East on Market to Atlantic avenue. North on Atlantic to the park and campus at 65th street.

Estimated driving time: 20 minutes.

Tribe Scalps Santa Monica Gridgers, 34-0

Despite a wet slippery field, El Camino's potent Warriors rolled to a one-sided 34-0 victory over Santa Monica last Friday in a Metropolitan Conference tilt on the Corsair gridiron.

The loss, Santa Monica's third in league play, ruined the Corsair homecoming, and gave El Camino a strong grasp on the season against a pair of setbacks.

The Warrior grid machine drew first blood in the crucial grudge clash when Jim Sears raced 65 yards on the third play from scrimmage. Jack Ray's conversion split the uprights and the Alondra gridmen held a 7-0 quarter time advantage.

Midway through the second quarter Paul Held took to the airways to tack up teehee number two. This time Jack Wash snagged Held's 34 yard aerial on the Corsair 20, and scampered the remaining distance to score. The pass netted 54 yards. Ray's attempted place kick backfired but the locals led 13-0.

With a minute and half left to play in the opening half Ron Skrifloff seved up the fracas by intercepting a Santa Monica pass and dashing 57 yards to a touchdown. Ray added the extra point and El Camino took a 20-0 lead into the dressing room.

After intermission Amby Schindler's crew went to work once again with Held passing to "Socoo" Torres. Torres grabbed the 13 yard spiral and raced 20 more yards to the promised land. Ray ambled onto the field and calmly added the conversion.

Late in the third period Torres counted his second six-point-er when the ex-Redondo scabbard swept left end from the Santa Monica 18. Ray converted and the final read El Camino 34, Santa Monica 0.

Score by quarters: El Camino 7 13 14 0—34 Santa Monica 0 0 0 0—0

Bay League Finale Set At Jordan Arena Tomorrow

Tartar coaches Eddie Cole and Rex Welch concentrated their pupils' learning this week on one all-important subject: How to stop power plays. Or, more specifically, how to stop Jordan power plays.

For when the curtain goes down after tomorrow night's Jordan encounter, the Tartar will show on the scoreboard. According to advance scouting, Torrance coaching has learned that Jordan depends little on passing or deception.

"It's through the middle or around end with plenty of interference," declared Coach Cole. "That's what Jordan likes." Yesterday, the Torrance second stringers used Jordan plays against the varsity. And the varsity found plenty to worry about. Especially when they stopped to consider that the Blue and White Jordan Fullback George Timberlake would be on the power end of those bruising plays.

Panther Coach Ernie Radford yesterday declared that his team will have to be "on" to take Torrance tomorrow. Whether his foreboding tone was applied in the traditional coaches lament procedure is hard to say. However, the records show that when a team has been able to stop Jordan on the ground it has come away with a victory.

Game time is 8 p.m. at the Panther field.

Gym Opened to Public Saturday

The men's gym at Torrance High School has been thrown open for popular recreation on Saturday mornings between 8 a.m. and noon, according to Rex Welch, activities director.

Under the auspices of the city recreation commission, men and boys of all ages will be able to workout on the basketball and volleyball courts or play ping pong.

Some Talent Returns

THE TARTAR BACKFIELD, with the exception of its field general, Boyd "Mouse" Crawford, will be back in the harness next season. Joe Clevenger, fullback; Aramis Dandoy, seat halfback and Jack Faren at the other half, are all juniors and have another year of eligibility left.

ALSO PROMISING are Cal Browning and Beryl Jones at the end positions. Cal, a sophomore, and Jones, a freshman, have both been playing a high brand of ball with the varsity.

LOCKER ROOM RUMOR has it that there may be a College of Pacific scout in the stands for tomorrow night's Jordan game. They're looking for fancy Dan quarterback material—among other things, Crawford may look good to them.

Pigskin Pickers Bite the Dust, Try Last Fling

After falling easy prey to local optimism and Redondo power, Torrance's prognosticators picked themselves up off the well worn floor for another try at pigskin pickin'. Object of conjecture this week, is-the Tartar-Jordan Panther game to be played at Jordan tomorrow evening.
